The conference Modern Earth Building 2005 can be booked only in writing and in advance. The admission fee for the conference must be paid directly after receiving the invoice. The invoice is also the confirmation. The prices quoted include the statutory value added tax and are in Euro. The participant can cancel his application latest until eight weeks before the conference. In this case he must pay 25 % of the admission fee. The cancel of the application after 8 weeks before the conference is impossible. In this case the complete application fee must be paid. The organizer may have to change the scheduled timetable due to speaker cancellations or unforeseen emergencies, no partial refunds are given in this case. The organizer does not take responsibility for property damages, lost items and individual injuries.
